Subject: Invitation for 6-Month Paid Internship Opportunity on Tribal Needs Assessment, Project Proposal Formulation, Funding Presentation & Field Monitoring.

Respected Sir / Madam,

Greetings from Bharatiya Adimjati Sevak Sangh (BAJSS), New Delhi.

It gives us immense pleasure to inform you that the Bharatiya Adimjati Sevak Sangh (BAJSS), founded under the inspiration of Pujya Thakkar Bapa and blessed by the Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi, has been working continuously for the social, economic, and educational upliftment of tribal, nomadic, and marginalized communities across India.

To address the evolving needs of tribal communities, the Sangh is launching a comprehensive initiative focused on identifying community needs, developing strategic project proposals, pitching them to prospective funding agencies, and conducting rigorous field monitoring. For this research-driven and practical assignment, we are inviting energetic, dedicated, and research-oriented Social Work students from your esteemed institution.

To facilitate this, the Sangh is offering a specialized Internship Program with the following key highlights:

- Duration of Internship: 6 Months
- The Organization will paid Stipend and other Facilities as per requirement.
- Roles & Responsibilities:
 1. Conducting needs assessment and field studies to identify core issues of tribal communities.
 2. Formulating detailed project proposals tailored to tribal welfare and development.
